

4th Annual South Florida ACFE Ballgame and Ethics CPE Event!!!

Attendance is limited, Register Soon!

Please make sure your membership is up to date and register early if you would like to attend. This event will sell out.

When: Thursday July 18, 2019

Program description: 4th Annual South Florida ACFE Ballgame and Ethics Event

09:00AM – 11:00AM Two hour educational program on Ethics presented by South Florida ACFE, to be held in the Marlins Press Conference Room.

12:10PM – 4:00PM Baseball Game, Networking and refreshments in a private suite overlooking the field.

Location: 501 Marlins Way (NW 16th Avenue), Miami, Florida 33125

Registration: Registration is limited to South Florida Chapter members in good standing only. You may renew your membership online or join the Chapter today at <http://southfloridaacfe.org/>. Attendance is currently limited to the first 40 registrants. You must register online by clicking "Register" below.

CPE Credits: 2 hours of ethics credits toward continuing education requirements of CFE and CPA certifications.

$100 Members / $200 Non-Members: for the educational programming, networking reception, and admission to the game.

Cost: Parking is not included, but can be purchased in advance via the following link [\http://miami.marlins.mlb.com/mia/ticketing/parking.jsp Further information on the garage closest to our gate of entry is pending.]

Cancellation Policy: Our cancellation policy for this event is intended to keep costs low for attendees. Due to financial obligations incurred by the ACFE South Florida Chapter, admission for this event is non-refundable. No refunds or credits will be given, however, the Chapter may facilitate the transfer of your admission to chapter members who were not able to register up to 5 days before the event.